Summary of Contents:	1 printed and illustrated advertisement [likely removed from a book (perhaps a city directory?)]
Physical Description / Condition:	Material is in good condition, with minor discolouration around the edge.
Administrative/ Biographical Sketch	M. Beatty &amp; Sons of Welland, Ont. were manufacturers of dredges, ditchers, derricks, steam shovels and centrifugal pumps. The advertisement includes four sketches of their products at work. The advertisement also indicates that E. Leonard &amp; Sons of Montreal and St. John, N.B. acted as their agents. In 1886 the firm built the first dredging machine ever constructed in Canada. It was called the "City of Toronto". Matthew Beatty (1815-1901), a native of Ireland came to Canada in 1842. After 18 years in business in St. Catharines he purchased a small foundry in Welland and expanded it to become the Welland Iron Works. Matthew Beatty was married in 1838 to Mary, daughter of William and Mary Leverton. The Beatty's had three sons; William L., Harvey L., and Alvin O., and two daughters; Sarah, Almira and Minnie. After Mr. Beatty's retirement his sons continued on in the business.
